Today you will enjoy a tour to the Royal Grand Palace, a complex of buildings at the heart of Bangkok, Thailand. The palace has been the official residence of the Kings of Siam since 1782. It is the most important landmark in Bangkok. The Grand Palace is divided into four main courts, and we will visit the Temple of the Emerald Buddha on the northeast court - the royal chapel of the palace. Then, we will see the Exhibition of the Kingdom of Art where the entire kingdom precious master piece of Arts is shown here. We will have a buffet lunch at the Baiyoke Sky Tower, an 84-storey, 309 m skyscraper hotel, a spectacular city view while enjoying your delicious lunch. We will then proceed to mysterious Golden Triangle History Village - visit the Hall of Opium Museum. It offers a great insight into the history of Opium, and concludes with some powerful messages about the effects and consequences of using drugs. This is a great museum experience. Excellent use of architectural drama – imagine entering through a tunnel with sculpted frescoes evoking drug experiences and the terror of addiction. Later, we will have a traditional Thai Style Massage to relieve your whole body tension.
